
Birdman. aka Robert Stroud. 50-60. Uptight psycho, obsessed with birds and germs. He will stab you if you get near! He is kept locked away from the other prisoners because of his craziness. He proudly thinks he's smarter than everyone, but really he just knows a lot of facts about a few subjects.

Nothing like the Burt Lancaster portrayal in Birdman of Alcatraz – this is the original violent nut case.

Sample lines:

BIRDMAN
I'll kill you and whistle while I do it.

BIRDMAN
I sold twelve thousand copies of my book on bird disease.
I'm a bird genius! And they took away all my birds.
I'm going to be famous! A reporter's writing a book.
And me - no birds!

BIRDMAN
If you make it, tell no one and never come back.
They'll say you drowned.
They're so god damned proud no one escaped their island.
