

And now, a word from our friendly attorneys...

Voicetrax classes are not auditions. The presence of a director is neither a guarantee of, nor a promise of, employment. The intent of classes is solely educational.

Attending a workshop is not a way to obtain employment as an actor. Such contact as you may have with a director at a workshop will not necessarily result in any further contact with that director or any company affiliated with that director.