

General Directions:

1. Please review the scripts and pick ONE role you feel best suits you.
2. Only submit ONE Take of the 4 selected lines (further instruction about lines below).
3. Example of proper file naming – John Doe – Randy.mp3
(Your Name) (Role)

Guest Listener Note to everyone is:

Each side I've included has artwork and character information – my only additional direction to everyone is

1. Make it your own.
2. These are all from comedies, so bring the funny .
3. Don't honor every written word; I don't mind a few adlibs here and there if they are effective...
4. The lines are numbered on all the sides - Pick your 4 favorite lines from the character you choose and do those.

Big Man on Planet – Palladia

Krys' best friend and confidante. Petite, a little off-beat, and a romantic at heart, you'd never suspect that Palladia is also the weapons technician for the BFF.

A voracious reader, her favorite books, not surprisingly, are the Daylight series, the epic story of two different aliens, LeeLee and Zordo, who long to be together against impossible odds. Palladia feels she can advise Krys because she sees parallels between Krys and Adam's relationship and LeeLee and Zordo's. She's rooting for her two galaxy-crossed friends to get together, because, as in Daylight, she believes Adam and Krys are meant to be together.

1. Palladia

(pressing Kryz for details about Adam)

Did he say your name kind of breathy, like (breathy) “Hey Kryz,” or more like a friend, (upbeat) “Hey Kryz!” Or was there a longing to his voice (longing) “Hey Kryz.” These details are important!

2. Palladia

Kryz, you have to use a light touch with Adam. It’s like the K-40 Sonar Fragmentizer. You press the detonator gently, and it gets the job done. Press it too hard, and you end up with that mess we caused on Rebulon 9. I still have that smoke smell in my hair.

3. Palladia

(when Kryz refers to Daylight as “that book”)

Daylight is more than a book! (reading) Daylight Part Two: “A Winter’s Spring.” As Zordo tenderly strokes LeeLee’s scales with his claw, he says, “Love needs three things to flourish: love, someone who loves, and someone else who feels the love of the first someone.”

4. Palladia

(reassuring Kryz about the mission)

You’ve gotta trust me on this one. You know the way Zordo gazes at LeeLee? That’s how Adam looks at you. Only with two eyes.